

Historical Timeline

- 1837 – Beloit’s first doctor (Horace White, Sr.)
- 1889 – Beloit’s first women’s doctor (Mrs. S. J. Dean)
- 1903 – Beloit’s first hospital (Manchester Block, the H. P. Strong Emergency Hospital)
In late 1903 became St. Mary’s Hospital, run by Catholic Systems on Broad and Park Avenue, later becomes Beloit General Hospital
- 1907 – Beloit Hospital Association Incorporated
- 1914 – Beloit Hospital, 28-beds on Broad Street, remodeled First Presbyterian Church.
- 1928 – Beloit Municipal Hospital (One Hospital) on Olympian Boulevard, operated by the city, built and equipped with $275,000
- 1940s – Post World War II, name changed to Beloit Memorial Hospital
- 1948 – Beloit Clinic on Madison Road
- 1954 – Mrs. Alonzo Neese creates Hospital Auxiliary
- 1956 – Addition to hospital furnished by Morse Family and Fairbanks-Morse Foundation becomes “Morse Annex”
- 1963 – City exits hospital business and leases Olympian facility to newly formed Non-profit Corporation, Beloit Memorial Hospital, Inc., Roy Colwell is hospital administrator
- 1966 – John J. Flad and Associates architect firm designs new hospital on Hart Road
- 1967 – Groundbreaking held for new hospital on Hart Road
- 1969 – Beloit Memorial Hospital’s address is 1969 West Hart Road
- 1970 – Beloit Memorial Hospital open house held, community fund drive raised over $3.5 million
- 1971 – Virgil Waelte named hospital administrator
- 1980 – New Vascular Laboratory opens located on hospital’s fourth floor
- 1983 – Addition of new full body CT Scanner in Radiology at a cost of $800,000 and expansion of Radiology services
- 1984 – Michael Rindler is hospital President and CEO
- 1985 – Beloit Memorial Hospital forms affiliation with UW Hospital and Clinics; 15th Anniversary Celebration of opening of Beloit Memorial Hospital on Hart Road
- 1986 – Beloit Memorial Hospital launched Newcomer Program
- 1987 – Beloit Memorial Hospital established a hemodialysis unit; development of “Plan 1990 – The Best We Can Be” Capital campaign $9.4 million fundraising effort
- 1988 – Emergency Department expansion, Gregory K. Britton is hospital President and CEO
- 1989 – Special Care Unit for Cancer is established and Footville Medical Center opens
- 1990 – New Critical Care Unit
- 1992 – Ambulatory Surgery Unit and Roscoe-Rockton Medical Center
- 1994 – Beloit Physician Hospital Organization established
- 1996 – Beloit Memorial Hospital opens its first outpatient mental health services facility within the hospital, the Counseling Care Center
- 1997 – Occupational Health and Sports Medicine Center open house on Lee Lane in Beloit
- 1998 – First hospital in Wisconsin to combine pediatrics and obstetrics
- 2000 – Beloit Memorial Hospital constructs an on-site co-generation plant with Alliant Energy and Fairbanks-Morse

- 2001 – New Dialysis Center wing is constructed adding 18 dialysis stations; Beloit Memorial Hospital opens new 24-unit assisted living complex, Riverside Terrace located on Riverside Drive in Beloit
- 2002 – Phase 2 of Riverside Terrace is completed offering a total of 35 units
- 2003 – Beloit Memorial Hospital’s Cardiac Services area adds angioplasty procedures completing over 150 cardiac angioplasties
- 2004 – Beloit Memorial Hospital’s volunteer organization, Volunteers in Partnership, celebrates their 50th year of service to patients and the community
- 2007 – NorthPointe Health and Wellness Campus opens in Roscoe, Illinois
- 2010 – Beloit Memorial Hospital and Beloit Clinic merge and become Beloit Health System; Emergency Medicine Department expanded
- 2013 – Timothy McKeveitt is Beloit Health System President and CEO
- 2014 – Beloit Health System/UW Cancer Center opens on Lee Lane in Beloit
- 2016 – Beloit Regional Hospice merges with Beloit Health System
- 2017 – Hendricks Family Heart Hospital and Packard Family Care Center open house held; NorthPointe Ambulatory Surgery Center opens; Beloit Health System and the Stateline Family YMCA partner to create Sports Medicine facility
- 2019 – Beloit Health System holds 50th Anniversary Celebration and Baby Homecoming and South Beloit Clinic opens on 1701 Blackhawk Boulevard in South Beloit, Illinois
- 2022 – Beloit Health System breaks ground for Free Standing Birth Center on the NorthPointe Campus in Roscoe, Illinois